Item 9. Other Events

We advise the Commission that on September 10, 2025, the Company made a news clarification with the Philippine Stock Exchange:

The Exchange requested the Company to make a clarification to various news articles relating to Global Ferronickel Holdings, Inc. ("FNI" or the "Company"). In the attached news article entitled "PCCI hits mining exec's continued detention" posted on Daily Tribune (tribune.net.ph) on September 9, 2025, it was stated in part that:

"The Philippine Chamber of Commerce and Industry (PCCI) has called on the government to release mining executive Joseph Sy, chair of Global Ferronickel Holdings Inc., who remains detained by the Bureau of Immigration (BI) despite a court order for his release.

'The continued detention of Joseph Sy despite an order for his immediate release is undermining the national image as a destination for foreign investments, not only for the Philippine mining industry but for the whole business community,' PCCI said in a statement Tuesday.

The business group was reacting to reports of a Regional Trial Court decision dated 4 September that granted a habeas corpus petition filed by Sy's camp. The court, citing lack of BI jurisdiction over a Filipino, ordered his immediate release. The order was received by BI the next day.

BI, however, has elevated the case to the Court of Appeals (CA) for review. On Monday, BI spokesperson Dana Sandoval said Sy remains in custody pending the appeal.

As previously disclosed, the Regional Trial Court of Taguig, citing the Bureau of Immigration's "glaring lack of execution" of its earlier Writ of Habeas Corpus, has issued a Writ of Execution pending appeal, directing the release of FNI Chairman Joseph C. Sy upon posting of the prescribed bond. The bond has already been posted.

Both writs have been served on the Bureau. However, the Bureau has yet to comply with the court's directive.

Mr. Sy's legal team is evaluating all available legal remedies while awaiting the transmittal of the record to the Court of Appeals.

FNI confirms that the Company and its subsidiaries continue normal operations without disruption.
